WHEREAS, there are still children in America who suffer from hunger, malnutrition, and diseases for which we have vaccines or treatment; and

WHEREAS, Americans for Children's Relief is a permanent organization dedicated to lending assistance to children wherever and whenever their quality of life is diminished; and

WHEREAS, the ACR sponsors health programs for children who "fall between the cracks" of existing private and governmental programs, supports innovative "blueprints" health and learning programs for children, and provides the catalytic "first dollar" to community self-help programs for the care of children:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December, 1972 as in South Dakota and urge renewed concern among our citizens for the welfare of our children as well as support for the programs and efforts of Americans for Children's Relief.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 29th day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-two.

Richard F. Kneip
